

College Planning: 9th/10th Grade

There are some steps you can take as a ninth- and a 10th-grader to make sure you're on the right track for college. This list will help you navigate the college planning process.

9TH GRADE

☐ Create a four-year high school plan. Think about what ☐ Participate in extracurricular activities. Academics aren't you'd like to accomplish in the next four years. everything. Explore your interest in a sport, school club, music or drama group, or community volunteer activity. Make sure you know which high school courses are required by colleges, and that you're taking the right Remember that colleges would rather see real classes as early as the ninth grade. You can ask your involvement in one activity instead of a loose counselor about what those "right" classes are. connection to several. Get to know the levels of courses offered by If you're interested in playing sports in college, research your school. the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) eligibility requirements. The NCAA requires completion ☐ Start thinking about your life after school, including the of certain core courses; you can find the specifics at types of jobs that might interest you. Of course, these will ncaaclearinghouse.net. change — often — but it's good to start thinking about ☐ Save for college. It's not too late to put money aside for the possibilities. college. Every little bit helps! Learning about financial aid Identify your interests — likes and dislikes — not just in early on can also help you down the road. classes but also in every area. This will help you focus on your goals. Explore summer opportunities. Look for a job, internship, or volunteer position that will help you learn about a field Talk to other people, such as your school counselor, of interest. teachers, recent college graduates who are working, professionals in the community, etc., about careers you ☐ Get familiar with the PSAT-related assessments and might find interesting. SAT°. Most four-year colleges consider applicants' scores on college admission test. Download the free Daily Practice ☐ Meet with your high school counselor. Your counselor for the New SAT app to get a feel for the kinds of questions knows how to help you get the most out of high school. Be you might face on test day. sure to take some time during the school year to discuss post-high-school plans with him or her. ☐ Take the PSAT™ 8/9. If your school offers it, sign up to take the first of the College Board assessments to set a baseline. This test will help you build up your skills to take the SAT in 11th or 12th grade.

☐ Meet with your high school counselor — again. ☐ Along with your family, do some research about how to Be sure to meet with your school counselor to ensure that obtain financial aid. Many students use financial aid to cover college costs. Find out what financial aid is, where your course schedule is challenging enough to prepare you for college. it comes from, and how you can apply for it. Read the U.S. Department of Education's Funding Your Education (about Check into any prerequisites for advanced-level juniorfederal aid programs). and senior-year courses. Attend college and career fairs. The fairs often take place ☐ Take the PSAT/NMSQT° or PSAT™ 10. Depending on in the fall at your school or in your area. your school, you might have the opportunity to take the PSAT/NMSQT in October or the PSAT 10 in February or ☐ Participate in school activities or volunteer efforts. March. It provides valuable feedback on your college Extracurricular activities can help you develop timereadiness and a free, personalized plan to help you start management skills and enrich your high school experience. getting ready for the SAT — and for college. ☐ Talk to your counselor about your plans for life after high ☐ Ask if the PSAT/NMSQT is offered to 10th-graders. school. He or she can help you plan your schedule, search Although this test is usually given in the 11th grade, it for colleges, and navigate the financial aid process. The is also often offered in the 10th grade. That's because more your counselor knows about you, the more he or she it provides valuable feedback through the Student Score can help you along the way. Report. You can then work on any of your academic ☐ Tour college campuses. If possible, take advantage of weaknesses while there is still plenty of time to vacation or other family travel time to visit colleges and see make improvements. what they're like. Even if you have no interest in attending ☐ Are you interested in attending a U.S. military academy? the college you are visiting, it will help you learn what to look for in a college.

If so, you should request a precandidate questionnaire.

10TH GRADE